Stir Me

Stir me, O stir me, Lord, I care not how But stir my heart in passion for the world; Stir me to give, to go, but most to pray; Stir 'til the blood-red banner be unfurled O'er lands that still in heathen darkness lie, O'er deserts where no cross is lifted high.

Stir me, O stir me, Lord, 'til all my heart Is stirred in strong compassion for these souls, 'Til Thy compelling "must" drives me to prayer; 'Til Thy consuming love reaches to the poles, Far north and south in burning, deep desire; "Til east and west are caught in love's strong fire.

Stir me, O Lord, Thy hear was stirred By love's intensest fire 'til Thou didst give Thine only Son, Thy best loved One E'en to the dreadful cross that I might live; Stir me to give myself back to Thee That Thou canst give Thyself again through me.
