A big "thanks" to those who donated the huge Emergency Kit. I've never seen one so big. It is hanging in the kitchen. What a thoughtful Christmas gift. Hopefully we won't need it much! :)

Also, we are grateful and touched by any cards or gifts that we have received this year for Christmas. Leslie and I feel blessed and unworthy. God be with you in '09.

Protocol for 2009:

1. Sunday School Teachers and Assistants: Be to church no later than 9:45 am. Make sure your class is set up. Have a word of prayer. Be in the auditorium by 10 am for the opening, and to meet your students. Use your assistant. Visit and pray for your students.

Don't just maintain your class - build it.

2. Care Team Leaders and Member: On your one Sunday of ministry, come to church early and meet in room # 13 for a short meeting, prayer about your needs, and plan for ministering to God's family that day. Don't forget to follow through with those you meet. Make friends with them. Pray for them. Your team leader may have a fellowship for you each month also.

3. Musicians and Singers: Be to the church by 9:30 am to practice your special one more time before you minister. Keep an eye on the Choir Call so your assignment doesn't sneak up on you.

4. Nursery Workers: Be to the nursery before the service begins. Please don't miss your assignment. We're counting on you! We hope to spruce up the nursery this year.

Our Present Malady

A generation of Christians reared among push buttons and automatic machines is impatient of slower and less direct methods of reaching their goals. We have been trying to apply machine-age methods to our relations with God. We read our chapter, have our short devotions, and rush away, hoping to make up for our deep inward bankruptcy by attending another gospel meeting or listening to another thrilling story told by a religious adventurer lately returned from afar. The tragic results of this spirit are all about us. Shallow lives, hollow religious philosophies, the preponderance of the element of fun in gospel meetings, the glorification of men, trust in religious externalities, quasi-religious fellowships, salesmanship methods, the mistaking of dynamic personality for the power of the Spirit; these and such as these are the symptoms of an evil disease, a deep and serious malady of the soul..
