Theme Verse for 2009

"For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." 1 Timothy 4:8

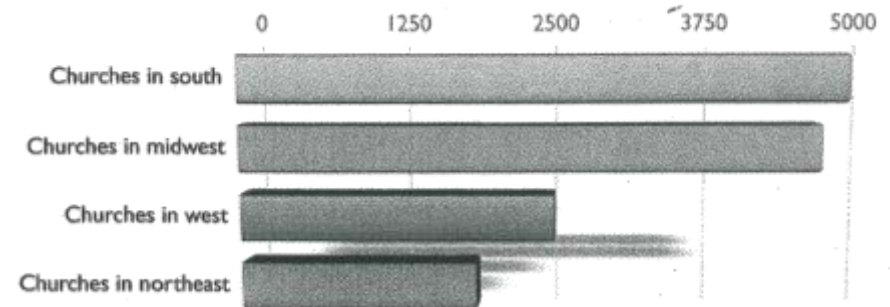

Resentment & Bitterness

The moment you start to resent people, you become their slave. They control your dreams, absorb your digestion, rob you of your peace of mind and good will, and take away the pleasure of your work. They ruin your religion and nullify your prayers. You cannot take a vacation without their going along.

They destroy your freedom of mind and hound you wherever you go. There is no way to escape people you resent. They are with you when you are awake; they invade your privacy when you sleep. They are close beside you when you eat, when you drive your car, and when you are on the job.

You can never have efficiency or happiness. They influence even the tone of your voice. They require you to take medicine for indigestion, headaches, and loss of energy. Then even steal your last moment of consciousness before you go to sleep.

So if you want to be a slave, harbor resentment.

Eden Corn Festival Parade

The parade is Sunday, August 9 at noon. Our theme will be “20 Years in Eden”. We expect to have two trailers and maybe 3 tractors this year. We’d like to have a trailer full of singers and another with instruments. Pastor Kohl and Dan Priore sure would like to have some good ideas and help!

Dear Parents,

To cut down on the many distractions we’ve had over the past few Corn Fest Parade Sundays, we are implementing a new policy. Any children involved in the Float will NOT be allowed in Junior Church that Sunday. They can sit in the adult service until the time comes to leave. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
