"How to Witness to Kids"

A 2-week class starts tonight,
6:00pm in Room 10.

Treasures of Darkness

When: 5:30 pm

Who: For all ladies,
Taught by Mrs. Sharon Ravert.

Why: To learn the reasons for the seasons of darkness ladies live through.

Father's Day is Next Sunday

All fathers present will receive a small gift. The service will be helpful to all men.
Invite someone you know who is a dad or granddad. Don't be idle, but busy in the work of the Lord.

Thank you to everyone who brought food for the Tri-State Fellowship dinner. We still have many dishes and pans in the kitchen. Check to see if any of them are yours!

Happy Birthday!

A Moment

A moment in the morning ere the cares of day begin,
Ere the heart's wide door is open for the world to enter in,

Oh, then alone with Jesus in the silence of the morn,
In heavenly, sweet communion, let your joyful day be born,

In the quietude that blesses,
let your soul be soothed and softened
As the dew revives the rose!

Here is an excerpt from our missionary to Thailand, Mark Bosje's most recent letter. It is about a Laotian Christian whose name is Song -

"After the service I met the Bible students. One of the young men spent two months in jail. His church was raided and he was arrested. He volunteered to go to jail if the police would free one of the young ladies.

Going to jail in Laos is nothing like going to jail in America. For two months, Song lived in a cage that was only four feet high. He was unable to stand up straight. The guards raised chicken on the roof of the cage, and Song slept in their dung. He was forced to sleep on his stomach so the dung would not cover his mouth while he slept. At the end of the first month his family was not able to raise his $60 fine and he had to spend another month in that cage. All because he went to church. Song desperately wants to become a preacher."

Why not say a prayer for Song right now? And why not thank God for our freedom of assembly in America! Tomorrow is Flag Day - fly the flag!
