To Be Like Him!

What can it mean to be like Him?
I, to be like my dear Lord?
I could not believe it, had I not
The promise of his precious Word.
I, with follies and failures,
I, with my weakness and sin,
To be like the Lord in His beauty,
Perfect without and within?
He, whom the angels, adoring,
Veil from His glory their eyes,
He who one glad day will take me
To dwell in His home in the skies?
O, I am weary with waiting,
Sick of this old self of mine!
Come quickly, Lord Jesus, come quickly,
And give me a spirit like thine!

Meeting at the Fountain

Many years ago when DL Moody was still busy in this country, there was an industrial exposition ground in Chicago. There was in the exposition ground a fountain which became the rendezvous for folk who arranged to meet each other. One would say to another, "Will you meet me at the fountain?" The answer was, "All right, I will meet you at the fountain."

P.P. Bliss, the gospel song writer, was allured with this meeting place. He wrote the gospel song based on it, lifting the thought from the meeting place in the exposition ground to that higher meeting place, and he wrote this:

Will you meet me at the fountain,
When I reach the glory-land?
When you meet me at the fountain,
Shall I clasp your friendly hand?

Other friends will give you welcome;
Other loving voices cheer;
There'll be music at the fountain,
Will you, will you meet me there?

A Thot for Parents

"My husband and I eliminated the television 15 years ago. The original reason was that we found ourselves wasting time in an ever increasing evil medium. We would sit down to watch a 30-minute show and find ourselves in the same spot two hours later. As our family grew we felt that a TV ban was very important. First and foremost the TV is evil; it is the devil not much in disguise. When we do happen to see TV on vacations or in homes of others, it is shocking to us what is being seen by children and adults on a daily basis. We are embarrassed, shocked, saddened, but to others who see it every day it is nothing. Second it is a waste of precious time. The benefits of no TV include better relationships, quality separation from the world, a wonderful library, many projects being completed, extended family events, positive productivity, wholesomeness, quietness, and we feel that it is pleasing to the Lord.

Teacher Tips

Once, while sitting in the den of John Wooden, the great basketball coach of UCLA, I heard someone ask him the questions, "What is the most important trait for a leader?" His answer was quite surprising. He said, "He must be a good listener." Having a kind, listening spirit allows one to mentor and instruct far more thoroughly than if one was to be overly reactive, caustic, or cruel.

Gentlemen

by Dr. George Alquist, Jr

A gentleman is careful to help the lady to his right with her chair as she rises or sits.

A gentleman makes reservations when possible.
