An excerpt from Pastor Cox's last letter in the East Sunbury Baptist Church bulletin on Sunday, February 3, 2013

Thank God for the Bible! How many times have you said that or heard that statement said? Yet every time you hear it, you know it to be true. The only real test we will ever have for our soul is when we read and heed its pages.

We should be thankful that we have a source to establish what is truth. We should be thankful we have a source to get us through the times in life when the words of man are shallow and hollow. We should be thankful that we have a source to clarify our thinking when we have so many voices coming from so many directions. We should be thankful that we have a source to help us when we just don't know what to do.

Three crosses stood on Calvary's hill, surrounded by a mob,
Two crosses bore two dying thieves, and one the Lamb of God.
Two crosses bore two dying thieves who justly suffered shame;
The one cross bore God's sacrifice, the Lamb for sinners slain.
One thief received the dying Lamb, repented of his sin;
The other thief refused to heed, and did not enter in.
