AUGUSTINE'S PRAYER: "SAVE ME, BUT NOT QUITE YET"

In the early days of his struggle toward the truth, Augustine made a prayer, "Lord save me from my sins, but not quite yet."

Then, sometime after that, he prayed, "Lord, save me from all my sins, except one."

And then came the final prayer, "Lord, save me from all my sins, and save me now!"

It was when he made that final decision against evil that victory was his.

GREAT QUOTES FROM UNKNOWN AUTHORS

- ⇒ Only one life 'twill soon be past
Only what's done for Christ will last
- ⇒ You can't change your circumstances,
But you can change your attitude.
- ⇒ Every year I live, I am more convinced that the waste of life lies in the love we have not given, the powers we have not used, the selfish prudence which will risk nothing, and which, shirking pain, misses happiness as well.
- ⇒ Gratitude is the highest form of repayment.
- ⇒ The perfect host is always ready before the Glorious Guest arrives.
