Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Signer #14: Oliver Wolcott (1726-1797)

Connecticut. Age at signing: 49

Married: Laura (5 children)

Occupation: Lawyer, Politician

Quotes & Notes:

The person of Mr Wolcott was tall and erect, indicating great personal strength and dignity. His countenance manifested a sedate and resolute mind. His manners were urbane, and through life he was distinguished for modesty. Though firm and tenacious of his own opinions, which he distinctly expressed on all suitable occasions, he ever manifested great deference for the opinions of others.

As a patriot and statesman, a Christian and a man, Governor Wolcott presented a bright example; for inflexibility, virtue, piety and integrity, were his prominent characteristics.

His integrity was inflexible, his morals were strictly pure, and his faith that of an humble Christian.

HANDEL SOBS IN COMPOSITION

When Handel's servant used to bring him his chocolate in the morning, "he often stood silent with astonishment to see his master's tears mixing with the ink as he penned his composition."

And it is related that a friend, calling upon the great musician when in the act of composing the music for the words, "He was despised and rejected of men," (Isaiah 53:3) found him absolutely sobbing.

The Garden Tomb

(also called Gordon's Tomb)

"And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay."

(Matthew 28:5-6)
