GOLDEN RULE OF TRAFFIC

All traffic tickets issued in Rockville, Md, were imprinted with these words: "Drive towards others as you would have them drive towards you."

DO ALL THE GOOD YOU CAN

John Wesley had this for his rule of life:

Do all the good you can,
By all the means you can,
In all the ways you can,
In all the places you can,
At all the times you can,
To all the people you can
As long as ever you can.

A GIRL'S SYMPATHY

It is said that when Mrs Booth, who even more than her husband, was the life of the Salvation Army, was a little girl, running along the road with hoop and stick, she saw a prisoner dragged away by a constable to the lockup. A mob was hooting at the unfortunate culprit, and his utter loneliness appealed at once to her heart. It seemed to her that he had not a friend in the world.

Quick as thought, she sprang to his side and marched down the street with him, determined that he should know that there was one soul that felt for him whether he suffered for his own fault or that of another.

A lady was mailing a gift of a Bible to a relative. The postal clerk examined the heavy package and inquired if it contained anything breakable.

"Nothing," the lady told him, "but the Ten Commandments."

MAN ON HIS KNEES

In the early days of the Republic, a stranger once asked at Congress how he could distinguish Washington.

He was told, "You can easily distinguish him when Congress goes to prayer. Washington is the gentleman who kneels."
