Children Faithful if Parents Attend

A study reveals that if both mother and father attend church regularly, 72% of their children remain faithful. If only dad attends regularly, 55% remain faithful. If only mom attends regularly, 15% remain faithful. If neither attend regularly, only 6% remain faithful.

Baptized People & Church Attendance

A survey in England reveals that although 26 million persons are baptized Anglicans, only 2,887,671 are registered on church membership rolls.

In Latin America, long considered a Christian stronghold, 88% percent of the population are baptized Roman Catholics, yet Catholic authorities reports that the "vast majority" seldom see the inside of a church.

Baby Baptism is not scriptural. It obviously does not lead to commitment either. Rather to a false assurance that their sins were washed away by baby baptism.

Jesus taught child conversion (Matthew 18:3, 14), not baby baptism.

Active for or Against

When Clyde R. Hoey was governor of North Carolina, he visited the western part of his state and met a country pastor. The usual question about how many members there were in the church brought the response "Fifty."

When the governor asked, "How many of them are active?" he got the same answer. "My," he remarked, "you must be an unusual preacher to have a 100% active membership."

"Well," the parson admitted, "25 are active for me and 25 are active against me."

March's Verse on Humility

"Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up." James 4:10

Lincoln as a Church Builder

Due to the presidential campaign of 1860, the world knows that Abraham Lincoln put in time as a rail-splitter. Few people realize, however that in his youth Abe also helped his father construct a church building and was its janitor during his teens.
