A Father's Concern

During the frontier days, the driver of a covered wagon stopped his horses on the street of a young town, and called to a passing man, "Hey, any saloons in this place?"
"Sure, we have four!" boastfully replied the man.

"Giddap," the driver shouted, urging his horses on.

"Stop," called the man.

"I can't stop here," replied the stranger, "I've got four boys in this wagon."

"Why?" again called the man, "What's your business?"

"My business is to raise these boys for God, and I can't do that in a town with four saloons." And he hurried his horses on, soon turning the bend in the road and passing out of sight.

June's Verse on

Humility

And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted. -
Matthew 23:12

Raising Billie

Papa said, "Now Billie, don't"
But Billie said, "I will," and did;
And Papa went to get the rod,
But Mama said, "Don't beat the kid."
So Papa laid aside the rod
While Billie smiled at "poor old Dad,"
And Mama stroked "dear Billie's" head
And called him her poor little lad.

The years have passed and Bill is gone
Buried in a sinner's grave
While Mom and Dad still linger on,
So sad they let him misbehave.
The lesson's clear for all to see:
If you would raise a son for God,
Father and Mother must agree
When Billie needs it, use the rod!
