August's Verse on HUMILITY

"For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones." (Isaiah 57:15)

"HUMBLE WITNESSES NEEDED TO GO"

By the late William A. Fuller
Now listen, dear friends --
I'll tell you a tale
How a prophet called Jonah
got caught by a whale.
The whale got the prophet and,
bless your dear soul!
He not only caught him
but swallowed him whole!
This part of the story is awfully sad,
For it tells of a city that went to the bad.
When the Lord saw those people
with such wicked ways,
He said:
"I'll allow them but forty more days."
He then spoke to Jonah and said,
"Go and cry
To the sin-hardened city
and tell them just why
I give them six weeks
to get well humbled down,
And if they don't yield
I will tear up their town."
Jonah heard the Lord speaking and said, "I won't go.
It's against my religion and so I say No.
Those Nineveh people
are nothing to me,
And I'm always against foreign missions, you see."
So he went down to Joppa,
defiant in face,
And boarded a ship
for some faraway place.
But God saw that ship
as it sailed and said He,
"I can see Jonah's planning to run off from Me."

There are railroads that run into Nineveh town.
There are "prophets" galore who should flag sinners down.
But not many do it; far easier, you see,
To sail on a ship,
hoping God cannot see.
So they join a nice church,
with a place on the board,
And put in much effort by
"serving the Lord."
But pointing the lost
to the pathway of grace
Is for "others,"
so to them relinquish their place.
The Lord knows the ship
that all dead Christians take,
And He turns to confusion
the plans that they make.
A whale's waiting ready
though judgment is slow.
How much better to say to the Lord,
"I WILL GO!"

from Ireland. It was a blessing to them.

out, 1000 bags and more tracts at the Fest on Saturday. Pray for the written word.

...For the countless hours put into VBS prep and program this in different ways, early hours, late nights and months of preparation. God bless you all -
