Only The Bible Has The Answer

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith came up with a new story about Spurgeon.. The time for reading Scripture came one Sunday morning and Spurgeon left the Bible closed. "Some have found fault with me," he said. "I am too old-fashioned. I am always quoting the Bible and do not say enough about science. Let us turn to science this morning. There is a poor widow here who has lost her only son. She wants to know if she will ever see him again. We turn to science for the answer: Will this woman see her son? Where is he? Does death end all?"

There was a long pause. "We are waiting for an answer," he said. "This woman is anxious."

Another long pause. "Nothing to say? Then we will turn to the Book." He began to read the wonderful statements of the Bible. He read Luke 7:11-15

Easter Sunday Notes:

Not Worth A Nickel

A remark overheard in a streetcar reminded us that there are honorable men in the world. A young man said,

"I am particular about paying my fare. I took a ticket home once when I was a boy, and showed it to my father, saying that the conductor had not taken it up, and that I was that much ahead. My father looked at me and said that I had sold my honor for a nickel.

That put a new face on it. I always think of what he said when I am tempted to repeat the offense."

If all fathers trained their sons in this way, there would be fewer dishonest people.
