That Speck of Light

An artist once drew a picture of a winter twilight - the trees heavily laden with snow, and a dreary, dark house, lonely and desolate in the midst of the storm. It was a sad picture.

Then with a quick stroke of yellow, he put a light in one window. The effect was magical. The entire scene was transformed into a vision of comfort and cheer.

The birth of Christ was just such a light in the dark world.

"Stupid Old Woman!"

Queen Victoria sometimes enjoyed a walk incognito. Once, she slipped out with only a servant following behind.

Along the road, she came upon a flock of sheep being driven by a boy who shouted, "Keep out of the way, stupid old woman!"

The queen smiled, but said nothing, and when her servant came along he informed the lad that she was the Queen. "Well," said the boy, "she isn't dressed like a queen."

Likewise, some did not recognize the Son of God because He came in humble form.

Jesus: "Jehovah Our Saviour"

"Jesus" is a precious name to all believers because it reminds us that He is The Saviour. It teaches us the purpose of His incarnation. It reminds us that God also became man.

Peter made much of this name when he declared: "...there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4:12)

Notable Quotes

from this year's Cantata ☺

- "Norma! I need another pill. The child is back!" - Dr. Fitz
- "Oh Mr. Fitz, don't be such a Scrooge...or, I guess, in the Christmas story you would be Herod." - Lizzie
- "I'm diabetic, so I would appreciate if you didn't leave poisonous things on my doorstep." - Dr. Fitz to Mrs. Walker
- "You're not the only one with problems." "No, I'm just the one who's dying." - Sarah & Dr. Fitz
- "Norma! Bring me two pills this time!" - Dr. Fitz

A little boy had lost his right hand in an accident. He felt so badly about it that he didn't want to see anyone.

His father said, "I'm going to bring a minister in to see you."

The boy said, "I don't want to see him." But the father brought him anyway.

When the boy looked up, he saw that the minister had no right arm; there was just an empty sleeve.

He came over the boy and said, "I lost my hand when I was a boy, too, and I know how it feels."

It wasn't hard for the boy to get acquainted with the minister who "knew how it felt." So Christ has suffered for us and knows our temptations. (Hebrews 4:14-16)
