Philippians 1:8,9

<sup>8</sup>For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup>And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

Join us in memorizing the 1st Chapter of Philippians in January, February, and March. Work on these verses this week:

If you can't play "hurt," don't expect much game time.

Somewhere down the trail of life, you will experience a disappointment or a discouraging development. Setbacks should not surprise you because they are somewhat standard fare in both life and ministry. It may take the "wind out of your sails," but as a man [or woman] of God you must determine to generate your own breeze and sail on!

Hurt and heartache are normal. Have the mindset, "If I'm hurt, nobody but the three members of the Trinity will know about it." Keep yourself game-ready. You may be limping, but tell the Coach, "I want to play anyway."

Dear friend, get off the bench, get in the game, and tell your teammates, "I want the ball for the game-winning shot!" - Evangelist John Hamblin (He was with us in 2013.)

The Biblical Basis for multiple local church services (fellowships) a week

1. Our Lord taught daily in the temple - Matthew 26:55; Mark 14:49; Luke 19:47; 22:53
2. The church Christ planted in Jerusalem met and ministered daily - Acts 2:46-47; 5:42; 6:1
3. Christ's first appearance after His resurrection was on a Sunday evening - John 20:19. (Thomas was absent, and missed the Lord.)
4. Paul at Troas conducted a Sunday evening service - Acts 20:7-12
5. Psalm 134 promotes evening services, and corresponding blessings!
6. The greatest mid-week service involving Christ is five chapters long - John 13-17! It was either a Tues or Weds night (Jn.13:30)
7. We are taught to assemble more than we have ever before "as ye see the day approaching" - Hebrews 10:24-25

Missionary of the Week
