Philippians 2: 12-13

<sup>12</sup> Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

<sup>13</sup> For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Her Occupation

One day the census taker called and wrote us in his book, and so as I was hangin' round I thought I'd take a look.

He had our names and ages all, and put down Dad's vocation, but after Mother's name he wrote she had "no occupation."

Why, Mother's up before it's light! And through her work she races. She starts the breakfast, straightens things, and washes all our faces.

She packs our lunches, finds our books...of course it keeps her busy. She washes, irons, sweeps, and more - you'd think she would be dizzy!

She bakes a cake, and then a pie, she finds some time for sewing. There's mending, making over too, because we all are growing.

Then dinner comes, and dishes next, first one thing then another; and when our homework bothers us, she hears our "Help me, Mother!"

So she keeps going all the time, and though she's often weary, she never gets real out of sorts - she's always up and cheery!

She keeps so busy every day, and sure needs a vacation... and yet the census man wrote down she has "no occupation"?!
