A Special Place

The true church is not the building—
 It's the worshippers within—
 It's all who've found salvation
 And forgiveness of their sin.

But as we gather in this building
 It becomes a special place
 To worship and give thanks to Him
 For His all-saving grace.

For here He truly blesses us,
 And we know our Lord is near,
 For we're "two or three together,"
 And He tells us He is here!

We raise voices in praise music
 To let our joy be known
 That we will someday see His face
 For we've become His own.

May we constantly be growing—
 Not just in members' size,
 But in wisdom and enlightenment
 That opens sin-blind eyes.

And may those who walk in darkness
 In need of hope and grace,
 And enter through this building's door,
 Find here a special place!
