FROM $1,100,000 TO ZERO!

A few years ago a magazine gave some interesting statistics of two families who once lived in the state of New York. Max Jukes did not believe in Christianity, and he married a girl of like character.

From studies made of 1026 descendants of this union, 300 died prematurely; 100 were sent to the penitentiary; 190 sold themselves to vice; 100 were drunkards; and the family cost the state of New York $1,100,000.

Jonathan Edwards was a Christian and believed in Christian Training. He married a girl of like character.

From this union they have studied 729 descendants. Of this family, 300 were preachers; 65, college professors; 13, university presidents; 6, authors of good books, 3, U.S. Congressmen; and 1 was Vice-President of the United States. This family did not cost the state a single dollar.

You see the great difference between these two families.

The destiny of your child lies in your hands.

You can make or mar it.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

27 - Charity Garland
2 - Annette Schmelzinger 2 - Sandy Picone

Visiting a family where the father had just died, the preacher asked the young son, "What were your father's last words?"

"He didn't have any," replied the boy; "Mama was with him to the end."

SAVED FROM HANGING

Ever since the invention of printing, God has used this means to proclaim His Word and transform hearts and lives. John Wesley saw the importance of the printed page and wrote hundreds of tracts, which he distributed in large quantities. The great missionary Hudson Taylor was brought to Christ by reading a gospel leaflet he found in one of his father's books.

Mark J. Goodger made it a weekly practice to hand out tracts from door to door. One day in South Carolina he stopped at a house and rang the bell. Because he heard sounds inside, he knew someone was home so he kept ringing even though no one came. Finally a man appeared, took the tract he offered, and rudely slammed the door in his face. A week later, Goodger returned to the same house. This time the man answered almost immediately. Inviting him in, he asked him to come to the attic. There he saw a sturdy rope dangling from the rafters with a box below it. The man said, "Friend, when you rang my doorbell last week, my head was in that noose. I was ready to jump! But you were so persistent that I decided to go down and see who it was. After receiving your tract, I read it because its title interested me, and through it God spoke to me. Instead of jumping off that box, I knelt beside it and gave my heart to the Lord." How thankful Mark Goodger was that he had been diligent in his witnessing! Without that leaflet the man would have gone into eternity unsaved.

Are you spreading the Word of God to others?

- H.G.B.

It's only a tract, yet its warning
Is whispered in Jesus' own voice;
And at it's acceptance or scorning,
Heaven or Hell will rejoice!
